MORE THAN A DINNER

At the Supra, a trained toastmaster leads the table on a journey, exploring the human experience with thematic toasts. Guests are invited to add their perspectives, thoughts, and stories. This unique structure results in:

- Teams coming together on a more human level

- Invitation to deeper conversation

- An unforgettable experience for your people to cherish

People will ask, "How did you find this hidden gem?"

ANCIENT ROOTS

Thousands of years ago, the people of the Georgian Republic brought their poetic spirit to the dinner table, and the Supra was born. Ever since then, the Caucasus mountains have resounded with laughter, song, and heartfelt tales of valor. Amidst a turbulent region with frequent invasions and external pressures, Georgians have always remembered who they really are, at the table.

The Supra has transformed the Georgians into true masters of hospitality. In the 1990s, a former Peace Corps volunteer named John traveled to Georgia to help them rebuild, after a catastrophic civil war. To welcome him, the poverty-stricken Georgians loaded a generous table with food and wine. More importantly, they offered him toasts that got to the heart of his humanity and made him feel at home, in a foreign land.

The seed was planted: John brought the Supra home to America, and two of his proteges created Supra Dinner Society. As a way to thank the Georgians for their timeless gift, Supra Dinner Society donates 3% of revenue to First Things Foundation, John's non-profit, which offers personal support to Georgian entrepreneurs.

OUR MISSION

A TOAST

Here's to the evenings when the table is set with more than food and drink. When we raise our glasses to the ideas, stories, and dreams that inspire us. When we connect with friends, strangers or colleagues as real human beings. To the Supra Dinner Table, where we make lifelong memories: *Gaumarjos!

500+

Number of formal Supras we have thrown all around the U.S.

HOW IT WORKS

STEP 1

Reach out and tell us your specifications and we'll walk you through what to expect. And we will gladly help you coordinate anything from food, venue, etc., all the way up to a turnkey Supra.

STEP 2

One of our professional toastmasters will arrive to facilitate and guide your table. The toastmaster, called a Tamada, will share the Supra tradition and give everyone a sense of belonging.

STEP 3

The Tamada sets toasting themes for the table to explore: gratitude, love, friendship, adventure, art, victories and challenges. All are invited to offer toasts on these universal human themes.

STEP 4

After the Supra, participants marvel at the unexpected magic of the table and the new perspectives they discovered.
